Summary

Who Are We?

Welcome to the Earth Hero team. If you've made it to this point, you likely know a little about our values and style — but probably not all. So here's a little more to add!

We believe a billion compassionate activists can restore a healthy earth where life can thrive, so we are motivated to inspire people and their communities to join the global climate movement and improve lives.

Our nonprofit volunteer team is focused on providing tools and ideas that empower all who want to reduce emissions and care for our shared planet. We help people to respond effectively to the climate emergency while strengthening resilience and quality of life.

We are small, but our reputation and impact are growing fast. There are currently more than 50 active volunteers worldwide. We are excited that you are considering joining this important project to help improve lives on our shared planet. Welcome to the club!

Work Culture

Our work culture revolves around inviting in a mix of thoughtful, capable self-starters — young and elder, the inexperienced and the veteran, all drawing inspiration from one another. It is a nice environment for motivated people looking to have an impact, collaborate with others, and learn new skills.

Most work is completed asynchronously on one's own schedule. This allows self-directed individuals to work at convenient times.

By joining together, we can continuously build on each other's contributions to create something even better than any one of us could do on our own.

Tools / Resources

Because what we do is collaborative, and frequently involves diverse locales, we depend on technology that facilitates cooperation.

We typically use Zoom for video chats, Slack for messaging, Trello for project management, Figma for design, and Github for code repositories. We are always open to better ways of working if you have ideas! Prior knowledge of these tools is not required. We chose them because they are relatively easy to learn.

Create Your Own Opportunities

Being part of Earth Hero offers tangible benefits: work experience in a dynamic atmosphere, the chance to acquire new skills and learn from experts, and the possibility of obtaining references. This volunteer opportunity often helps people figure out what they enjoy doing and advance their careers.

In order to make the most of this adventure, please ask questions, offer suggestions, and get as involved in as many aspects as you like. When you need help or guidance, don't hesitate to seek it. Take advantage of the opportunity to try new things — and, please, have fun along the journey!
